

Appointment of a Part-Time Development Worker – North East of Scotland

General information

The Boys' Brigade

The Boys' Brigade is a UK & RoI wide voluntary youth organisation for children and young people with around 17,000 members in Scotland. We partner with the main denominations of the Christian church.

The BB provides a wide variety of fun and educational activities for children and young people, including camps and holidays. More information can be found at <https://boys-brigade.org.uk/scotland/>

We now have the opportunity to appoint a Part-Time Development Worker to support the development of The Boys' Brigade in the North East of Scotland.

Applicants need to be in sympathy with the aims and mission statement of the organisation. The appointment is initially for 18 months and the worker will be home based.

This part-time role (21 hours per week) will work with local volunteers and other nationally employed staff to support and improve the programmes offered to members, and to assist with the delivery of the Brigade's Development Plan in the area. The position requires flexibility as you will be required to work daytime hours as well as some evenings/weekends.

Appointment will be subject to two references and a successful application to be a member of the PVG scheme.

Travel

The Development Worker should be a car owner with a clean driving licence. A mileage allowance, currently 45p per mile, will be paid for business use.

Salary

The salary for this post is £24,590 pro-rata based on a 21-hour week.

There is an annual leave entitlement of 25 days leave plus statutory and bank holidays pro-rata.

Closing Date

Monday 27th November 2017

It is likely that interviews will be held w/c Monday 4th December 2017.

If you would like to have an informal discussion about this post before submitting an application please contact John Sharp, Director for Scotland.
