

1. Go to elections.syp.org.uk

Click on SYP elections 2019 link.

2. In the Vote section enter your identifier and select the NVO you'd like to vote in.

The example below uses an identifier of 9999999 and selects the Boys' Brigade.

The screenshot shows the SYP Elections 2019 website. At the top is a blue header with the SYP logo and navigation links: Home, NEC Login, and SYP Elections 2019 Home. Below the header is a grey breadcrumb trail: Home / SYP Elections 2019. A pink message box states: "If you have any issues with this site please email elections@syp.org.uk or speak to your Election Coordinator." The main heading is "SYP Elections 2019" with subtext: "Starts Aug. 1, 2018, midnight and ends March 28, 2019, midnight" and "The Scottish Youth Parliament elections will take place between the 15th and 29th of March 2019." A link for questions is provided: "If you have any questions about this email or the process please email elections@syp.org.uk". The "Vote" section states: "NVO members are able to place their votes online." It features a form with an identifier input (9999999), a dropdown menu for "Carers Trust" (which is open, showing a list of organizations including Carers Trust, Church of Scotland, FOSIS, Girl Guiding Scotland, LGBT Youth Scotland, RNIB (Haggeye), Scouts Scotland, Scripture Union Scotland, The Boys' Brigade (highlighted), Who Cares? Scotland, and YMCA Scotland), and a "Check Eligibility" button. Below this is the "Select a Constituency" section, which says "Select a constituency to vote in and NEC contact details." and includes a search bar with the text "Start typing to filter constituency". A list of constituencies is shown: Aberdeen Central, Aberdeen Donside, and Aberdeen South and North Kincardine.

This then takes you to the list of candidates for your chosen organisation.

SYP Elections 2019

Balloting is counted using the Single Transferable Vote method. Information on how STV works can be found on the Electoral Reform Society website.

Voting

You are eligible to vote in the following constituency: The Boys' Brigade.

The screenshot shows the "Voting" section of the SYP Elections 2019 website. It states: "You are eligible to vote in the following constituency: The Boys' Brigade." Below this is a list of four candidates, each with a small profile picture, their name, and a "View candidate profile" link. The candidates are: Cameron Stein, Shashank Swarna, Christopher Winters, and Alastair Thomson. At the bottom of the list is a green "Submit Ballot" button.

Voters should then rank their candidates in order of preference using Single Transferable Vote (STV).

A guide on STV is available from the elections.syp.org.uk homepage.

Voters can click on “view candidate profile” to view the information about the different candidates - this opens a new window with the candidate profile.
